Re: Brosnan v Oberle, Case number C 07-04337 WHA
To: The Honorable William Alsup

Dear Judge Alsup,

I just received the declaration of Joshua D. Brysk regarding the April 16, 2007, continuance letter. As I said in my prior letter to the court I don't believe that the letter came from the office of Mr. Brysk. I believe that Don Oberle created the letter. Joshua D. Brysk represented Mr. Oberle in multiple cases.

As I said in my prior letter, Mr. Oberle was recently convicted of identity theft; I've attached a copy of his conviction paperwork from the Walnut Creek court. Mr. Oberle blames me for his conviction. When Phil Venable from the Contra Costa District Attorney's Office questioned me, I provided information that led to Mr. Oberle's arrest and conviction.

On January 24, 2006, the Contra Costa District Attorney's Office sued Mr. Oberle for running an illegal credit repair business. The case number is CIVMSC06-00155. As can be seen from the entire court file Mr. Oberle did everything he could to delay the inevitable. On May 14, 2008 the Contra Costa District Attorney's office secured a default judgment against Mr. Oberle. I've attached a printout from that case.

It's my understanding per the Florida Department of Corrections that Mr. Oberle has an outstanding no bail warrant for his arrest. Mr. Oberle was convicted of Grand Theft in Florida and fled to California. Mr. Oberle's Florida Department of Corrections DC number is 945373. I've attached a current printout from the Florida Department of Corrections.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'John Brosnan', with a stylized flourish at the end.

John Brosnan
